Subject: Notice #101 – Irregular Behavior Cases and Associated Actions & Sanctions

The Educational Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG®) of the United States works on behalf of domestic and international medical regulatory authorities to protect the public through its programs and services, including primary-source verification of physician credentials. ECFMG considers all actions or attempted actions taken to subvert its processes, programs or services to be irregular behavior. The Medical Education Credentials Committee of the ECFMG Board of Trustees reviews allegations of irregular behavior and makes determinations about them in accordance with its policies and procedures. The following are actions and sanctions issued by the Medical Education Credentials Committee.

We hope that you find this information helpful as you work to protect the public. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at lcover@ecfm.org or 001-215-823-2107.
